Echo Valley is a nationally touring band. They're available to participate in events anywhere they are requested.

Advertising: Echo Valley promotes their appearances with social media ads to approximately 30,000 followers, and to other highly targeted, prospective attendees.

Promotional Material: Download the band's onesheet and other printable graphics as www.echovalleybluegrass.com/epk.

Sound: Echo Valley can work with your sound engineer for your event. In special circumstances, they can also bring their own sound equipment. The band's Stage Plot is available at www.echovalleybluegrass.com/epk.

Finances: even though the performers are young, their expenses are very real. They enjoy making music, but make no mistake - it's hard work, and their instruments, sound equipment, and travel expenses are very costly. Therefore, your support is greatly appreciated.

Requests: to book Echo Valley, email echovalleybluegrass@gmail.com.
